

A pterodactyl sees a fish in the water ($n=1.3$) at the angle of 30 Deg to the level of the ocean. At what angle to the normal of the water level is the fish actually located?

($n_{\text{air}} \approx 1$)

